

REMARKS

Currently, claims 1-12, 18-19, 23-51, 55-62, 79, 83-84, 89-90, 92-96, 100-102, 106-108, 111-122, 125, 129, 139, 140-149, 154-156, 161-165, 168-198 are pending in the application. Claims 13-17, 20-22, 52-54, 63-78, 80-82, 85-88, 91, 97-99, 103-105, 109-110, 123-124, 126-128, 130-138, 150-153, 157-160, and 166-167 have been cancelled.

The Examiner has required that Applicants prove that claims 1-12, 18-19, 23-51, 55-62, 79, 83-84, 89-90, 92-96, 100-102, 106-108, 111-122, 125, 129, 139, 140-149, 154-156, 161-165, 168-198 belong to Species 1. The Examiner has also required the Applicant to match each single claim to Figures 7-13 and clearly show in what page in the specification from pages 3-14 that teaches the claim if the claim is believed to teach details disclosed in Species 1.

In the previous Response, Applicants elected species 1 and designating the claims that map to species 1. In addition, Applicants cancelled claims that do not belong to species 1. Thus, Applicants submit that Applicant is not required to match each single claim to Figures 7-13. All of the pending claims are either generic or belong to Species 1.

The examiner has previously indicated that claim 1 is generic. It is submitted that other claimed features are also generic. For example, page 8 lines 3-6 state that the plurality of game features described with reference to figures 3-

13 and those described below [i.e., on pages 8-14 of the specification], can be mixed in a variety of other combinations and each of the features may be offered for purchase by the player in a particular game.

Page 8 provides a list of variations to the basic structure of the game. On page 8 and 9 of the specification a list of betting strategies is provided. The specification states that the betting strategy provided by the game can be any of the listed items. The remainder of the specification includes lists of possible features of containers and pins in the game. The features listed at least on pages 8-14 of the specification are not presented as being specific to any particular embodiment. Thus, these features are also generic.

As an example, the office action asserts that claim 79 is directed to figure 8. Applicants disagree. The specification on page 8 lines 16-17 states that the basic structure of the game can be varied by “(vii) awarding prizes/bonuses/features depending on how the containers and/or pins are hit.” The specification, therefore, clearly indicates that the feature of claim 79 can be used in any of the illustrated embodiments. Thus, the feature of claim 79 is also generic.

Similarly, other features presently claimed are not limited to specific figures of the specification. These claims are, therefore, generic, as well. As a result, Applicants are providing a breakdown of the claims to the specification.

Breakdown of Claims

As Applicant understands the requirement of the Office Action, each single claim matches the specification as follows:
